Your talent shines when it's trash talk time,
you're a freakin' Shakespeare vent.

That one time when I heard you scream,
I thought I was gonna die.

Don't tell me nothing I don't wanna hear unless there's backing facts.

You're just loud with a mouth that speaks
an awful lot of trash.

You just talk and cry while I do all the work,
all the heavy lifting here.

Babe can't you see I can't hold no more,
please just shut up for a while.

I wipe your mess and don't say a word,
but you keep on messing up.

Can't you see I'm a human mess,
I need you to stop right now.

I'm going crazy I will not excuse your childish manners here.

You're too loud and I'm going insane
so please just stop it now.

But you cry and talk every time I'm here,
I can't keep lifting this weight.

Honey let it go this is no more fun,
take your stuff and go away.
