Soul Reaper

I was walking down the alley and you just came on to me when I realized you were just the greatest thing I ever saw in my life.

I could barely talk my way through then you shook my hand goodbye
when I realized you were just the cutest thing I ever saw in my life.

Guess you're a soul reaper my heart just stopped and I couldn't move,
'cause you're a soul reaper
I wish I knew that when I met you.

I was walking down the river and you just came on my mind but then I thought I'm not ready for magic that would take my breath away.

When I realized you sought me I could not believe your words but then I realized you'd told me the sweetest thing I ever heard in my life.

'Cause you're a soul reaper you made my heart stop for more to come, babe you're a soul reaper now's just too late for me to back out.
